

MARIA HALL-BROWN

Celebrity Bio

Maria Hall-Brown, Producer, joined KOCE-TV (PBS) in July of 1997. She is a producer/reporter for "Real Orange" KOCE's nightly news and public affairs program. In addition, Maria produces documentaries for KOCE, recently winning a Golden Mike Award from the Radio Television News Association for her production "Notes from Europe." Following Pacific Symphony through its first European Tour.

Nominated four times...Maria also garnered a prestigious LA Area Emmy Award for her role as executive producer on the documentary "Mendez vs. Westminster" the landmark anti-segregation case that took place in Orange County seven years prior to Brown Vs. Board of Education. Mendez vs. Westminster also received a Golden Mike Award and was recognized at the White House during the Hispanic Heritage Celebration.

Maria is proud to be the producer/host of "Bookmark" an acclaimed author interview series highlighting the people behind the words of some of the most popular books today, with a guest list that ranges from first time writers to Pulitzer Prize Winners.

A graduate of UC Irvine...Maria is married to Dr. Jeffrey Brown and the mother of one daughter, Aubrey.